The Channeling Connection

Newsletter

January, 2020

Welcome to my first monthly newsletter. Although its focus will be primarily on the subjects of Channeling and Spirituality, I am reserving the right to include other related items that I think might interest you.

Well, here we are at the start of a new decade. And, if we look around, we can see that we are in an exciting time of expansion and acceleration. We see the light getting brighter and the darkness getting darker. Overall, my “sources” are saying that the light is winning and we are progressing. Examples of that are:

- Climate change is much higher on the political agenda.
- Clean, renewable energy sources are being rapidly developed.
- Developments in Artificial Intelligence and Nanotechnology will give us many new systems, devices and materials, improving the quality of life for many.
- New health technologies are contributing to longer and more fulfilling lives.
- Wars and war-time deaths are decreasing.
- Women are experiencing more rights and are advancing into key leadership roles.
- The quality of food and water is improving.
- Disposables and one-use containers are being replaced.
- Major investors, such as pension plans, are turning away from oil, coal and gas.
- Overall, more people are “waking up” and are realizing that greed, corruption and fighting are no longer winning strategies.

Another phenomenon, that is shedding light, is the increasing number of Channelers. From July of 2018, I have been working with 16 individuals who have each made contact. Seven of those are now offering services to the public and a few more are working towards that goal. At this time, those who are available for public events and private sessions are:

The three Ks (Karen, Kare and Kate) have a new and beautiful website, dedicated exclusively to channeling. You can see it at: <https://ascensioncalling.com>. Please have a look. It is very well done, it provides some background on the three Channelers and their Channeled Beings, and it outlines their services, fees and much more.

The other websites, identified above, outline services in addition to channeling.

The Channeling Connection

Hosted By Peter Dennis

The Channeling Connection Facebook group page is continuing to attract new members and I think we are about to see some significant growth in both its content and membership. If you haven't already had a look, please visit it and listen to some of the recordings, ask a question or make a comment. Don't hesitate to share it with friends.

To date, Colleen Bradley, Karen Heywood, Tina McPhee and Kate Woodley have each made channeled contributions. They are all very insightful and provide much to think about. Check it out at:

My Role as Facilitator: Early in this channeling adventure, I was told that I would not be a Channeler at that time but could serve best by being a Facilitator for Channelers. This means that I find channeling candidates or they find me, which seems to be happening more lately. I then help them to make a connection and I work with them through recorded practice sessions to strengthen the connection and help them get comfortable with this new ability.

As Channelers become more comfortable and confident with channeling, they decide if and how they will use it. To the degree that they want me to, I arrange for them to channel for individuals and small groups until they are comfortable and capable of channeling on their own. I can also help them to create podcasts, videos, audios and recorded public events and private sessions. If you have questions or would like to discuss this further, drop me a line at: peter@peterhdennis.com.

Predicting the Future: At this time of year, Channelers, Psychics and others are often asked to make predictions for the upcoming year. Some of these individuals are very talented but, realistically, there are limitations. First, we live in a free will universe, which means that anyone involved in the prediction can, at any time, change their mind and thus, alter the prediction. At best, the predictor can assess the forces and trends that are in play, at a moment in time, and then state a most probable future, but that would still be subject to change at any instant.

Second, channeled Beings, although they may see clearly how things are shaping up, are reluctant to communicate the most probable future because they know that we are here to experience and for the lessons that are available from it. Disclosing the outcome would deprive us of that growth opportunity.

That said, we can expect some comments on general trends but we won't likely get many specific predictions, nor would it be in our best interests to get them.

Speaking of the Future: The Pleiadians, channeled by Karen Ashby, have a New Year's message for us. It looks like the Earth and we Humans are in for some massive change. You can listen by clicking here.

Why are they here? At this time, our planet (Gaia) and our species (Human) are going through an accelerated advancement in consciousness. This has been referred to as The Shift. It started in the mid-1980s and was boosted around December 21, 2012. At this time, about a third of humans has awakened to their spiritual nature and is leading this shift. Others may take a few lifetimes to experience this awakening.

As this shift is unfolding, we are moving from what is known as the Third Dimension of Consciousness (3D) to the Fourth (4D). This shifting will be a little bumpy for some and our channeled friends are here to help smooth the way. They are helping us with their messages of information, healing and empowerment. There are many of them and they are looking for awakened humans to act as channels.

If you want to know more about channeling, I have written a book about how this channeling adventure began for me. The book talks about some of the feelings and concerns people have when they begin to channel consciously. It also talks about the Beings who are channeled and discloses many of the messages and perspectives that they have on spirituality and how things really work.

This book is available as a paperback, an eBook and as an audiobook. You can see
